1. Stories must be original, no longer than 1500 words and submitted by email to info@lutonirishforum.org by 12 noon on Friday 20th October. Stories can be a family story but will be original in that the author has written them in their own style.
2. The author's name and other identifying details must not be included on the story as the competition will be judged anonymously. The entry form must accompany the story.
3. The story must be submitted as a Word document enclosed in the email.
4. It doesn't matter if the story has been published elsewhere, either online or in print
5. The judge's decision is final and the judges are unable to provide feedback to the author
6. The author agrees to take part in publicity organised by Luton Irish Forum with the consent of their parent/carer. If this is not possible due to safeguarding reasons, it will not affect their chance of winning and we will accommodate this.
7. There are no alternatives to the prizes offered.
